Dawson/Bergman to approve Resolution 2024-02 approving the amendment to chapter 170.13: Ayes-5 Motion carried

General discussion of duties of the Planning and Zoning Commission

- Updating City website with regard to Planning and Zoning Commission members, it's outdated still listing past members who are no longer active on the commission.

General Discussion

- Why did the Planning and Zoning Commission not get a say in making the commission smaller, commission would like it back at 7 commission members. Would like this answered in writing for the next Planning and Zoning Commission meeting.
- Commission also discussed why there not involved in the naming of city streets: 139.01 city ordinance. Not involved in the Board of adjustments 170.26 city ordinance, Not involved Lafayette project 392.1 & 414.6, the addition of sewer and water at Eagles Landing.

There being no further discussion Borwig/Dawson to adjourn the meeting at 7:40 PM: Ayes 5

Subject: RE: P&Z

DeAnne:

It is my opinion that the City Council's decision to reduce the membership of the planning and zoning commission ("P&Z") from seven (7) to five (5) via ordinance is a lawful exercise of the City's statutory and home rule authority.

Iowa Code section 414.6 requires that City's appoint a planning and zoning commission. This same section then very generally lays out the powers and duties of the P&Z commission. However, section 414.6 is silent on the issue of overall membership. Compare this to Iowa Code section 414.8 which specifically outlines the number (5/7/9) and terms of service for the board of adjustment (BoA). In terms of statutory construction, when an Iowa statute is relatively general in terms of what is required, the City is permitted to fill in the gaps and specifics pursuant to its home rule authority. This is further outlined in section 392.1 of the Iowa Code that permits City's to establish administrative agencies, by ordinance indicating the "title, powers, and duties of the agency, the method of appointment or election, qualifications, compensation, and term of members, and other appropriate matters relating to the agency." This is what the City has done with Chapter 22 in the Evansdale, Iowa Code of Ordinances.

Accordingly, the City acted within its authority by amending its ordinances to reduce the P&Z membership from seven (7) to five (5). While a change, this is not an uncommon direction for many similar commissions I've seen across Iowa. Getting members to fill commission seats is proving to be more and more difficult. Additionally, without a quorum, P&Z can't act which makes moving development and growth forward difficult.

Best,

Daniel M. Morgan
